

General American is proud to announce that Dr. Sally A. Lynch, Vice-President, is to be honored by Stony Brook Alumni Association as a recipient of the 2009 Distinguished Alumnus Awards at a campus ceremony on November 20, 2009. The Award pays tribute to outstanding Stony Brook University alumni who have demonstrated extraordinary commitment to the University, have exceptional achievements, and whose careers reflect the highest values embraced and promoted by both the State University of New York at Stony Brook and the Stony Brook Alumni Association. Dr. Lynch is responsible for securities in the biotechnology and pharmaceutical industries at General American Investors.
